Primary Instructor: Israel Vasek

Israel is a professional sheep shearer, and shears approximately 10,000 sheep per year. He learned to shear with his father and is carrying on the family tradition. Israel is not only a quality shearer, but he is conscientious, and handles the sheep respectfully. He and his family live in North Dakota. We are honored to have him come to Oklahoma to teach this class.

What each student will learn:

- How to shear a sheep effectively.
- Proper handling of shearing equipment.
- Sheep handling.
- Skirting and grading a fleece.
- Visit the Farm Museum and demonstration area to learn basic wool processing.

Additional Information

- Each student will have the opportunity to shear a few sheep
- Sheep & shears provided for use during the school.
- No outside animals of any kind are permitted on the premises due to USDA regulations.
 - Please be prepared to sign a waiver & heed Shepherd's Cross Rules.

Shepherd's Cross has been raising and shearing sheep since the early 1990's. Not only do we shear, but we also process wool fibers from our own sheep right here on the farm in our all natural, mini-wool mill.
